CHLORIDE OF LIME.—The season for J. W. HOLDEN. a free use of disinfecting agents is rapidly drawing near. The cholera is reported as having already made its dread advent to our shores. After a complete renovation of cellars, vaults &c., about our premises, the next thing in order is the free and continued use of a disinfectant. Perhaps none cheaper or better can be found than chloride of lime. It appears to be possessed of other virtues also as the following from a London [England] paper attests: Some years ago I read in a French scientific periodical, that chloride of lime would rid the house of all vermin. To those who get up clubs of five or more sub- I treasured up the information until an opportunity offered for testing its val-Subscribers who were cut off from us during the ue. I took an old country house, infes. war, and whose time of subscription had not ex- ted with rats, mice and flies. I stuffed every knot-hole and mouse hole with restoration of communication, until the time be the chloride. I threw it on the stone floor of the dairy and cellars. I kept saucers of it under the chests of drawers, or some other convenient piece of furniture; in every nursery, bed or dressing room. An ornamental glass Ten lines or one inch space to constitute a case. Cow sheds, stables and pig styles, all had their dose, and the result was glorious. I thoroughly routed my enemies; and if the rats, more impudent than all the rest, did make renewed attacks upon the dairy, in about ten months the chloride again routed them, and left me master of my own prem-

Last season was a great one for wasps. They could not face the chloride, though No paper in the South has advertising facilities in the dining room in which we had none-as it smell, to me most refreshing and wholesome, is not approved by all persons—we had a perpetual warfare. All, all this comfort for eightpence! Only let house-wives beware that they place not the chloride in their china pantries, or in too close proximity to bright steel wares, or the result will be that their gilded china will be re-

OM AND ADD Speech of Napoleon.—Napoleon made a significant speech at Auxerra, France, on the 16th instant, in which he said he detested the treaty of 1815. The Paris Bourse accepted it as a signal for war. Severe panies set in, and Rentes fell two per cent. The following is the speech in full:

"I see with pleasure that the memory of the first empire has not been effaced from your minds. Believe me, for my own part I have inherited the feelings entertained by the chief of my family for this energetic and patriotic popula-BLANKS, tion, who sustained the Emperor in good as in evil fortune.

"I have a debt of gratitude to discharge towards Yonne. This department was the first to give me its suffrages in 1848, because it knew, with the majority of the French people, that its interests were my interests, and that I detested equally with them those treaties of 1815 which it is now sought to make the sole basis of our foreign policg. I thank you for the sentiments you have expressed towards me.

"Among you I breathe freely, for it is among the working population, both in town and country, that I find the real genius of France.

DEATH FROM THE STING OF A FISH.-We are pained to learn that Mr. John Myres, residing near New Oxford, died on Wednesday of last week from lockjaw, produced by a wound from the sting of a fish. It appears that some four or five weeks previous Mr. M. had purchased a lot of fish, and in handling them one of his fingers received a slight prick or wound from the fin of one of the fish. Although painful at the time, he did not pay much attention to the wound, thinking it was a mere trifle, but in a few days afterwards the wound became very painful, his hand and arm swelling fearfully, causing him the most intense agony. He suffered for several weeks in the greatest misery, mortification set in, and death came to his relief. He was aged about fifty-eight years, and was a most estimable gentleman. He leaves an interesting family to mourn his untimely loss .- Hanover Spectator.

ANOTHER AMENDMENT.-Mr. Sumner to-day gave notice of an amendment intended to be proposed to Senate bill 292, entitled a bill to provide for restoring to the States lately in insurrection their full political rights.

Strike out after enacting clause, of the first section, and insert the following section as a substitute: That when any State lately in rebellion shall have ratified the foregoing amendments, and shall have modified its constitution and laws in conformity therewith, and shall have further provided that there shall be no denial of the elective franchise to citizens of the United States because of race or color, and that all persons shall be equal before the law, the Senators and Representatives from such States, if found duly elected and qualified, may after having taken the required oaths of office, be admitted into Congress as such : Provided, That nothing in this section shall be so construed as to require the disfranchisement of any loyal

The N. C. Banking Law.

AN ACT TO ENABLE THE BANKS OF THE STATE TO CLOSE THEIR BUSINESS. WHEREAS, The financial policy of the Federal Government adopted to maintain the national credit, with the heavy taxes imposed by that Gov-ernment on the Banks of the State, makes it ab-solutely necessary that said Banks should close their business, and renders a further continu mee of their corporate existence idle and useless to the

of their corporate existence interain useless to the people of the State, Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authrity of the same, That if the Stockholders of any of the Banks chartered by the General Assembly of this State shall be unwilling to close the business of their Banks by an assignment and are desirous to unproprinte all the existence. ment, and are desirous to appropriate all the estate and effects of such Bank for the benefit of its creditors, and to close its business and surrender their chartered rights and franchises in conformity with the subsequent provisions of this act, such Stockholders may by their bill in equity in the name of such Bank filed in the Court of Equity of the county in which the principal Bank or any of its branches may be located, require the credi tors of such Bank to prefer and establish their demands within such time (not less than twelve months after decree therefor) as shall be allowed by the Court. The Court shall upon filing such bill appoint as commissioner a suitable person acquainted with the business of such Bank, who shall be paid for his services such sum as may be allowed by the court. Such commissioner shall give bond with ample security, payable to the State for the faittful discharge of his duties in such sum as shall be approved by the court, which bond shall be filed in court and may be sued on for the use of such persons as the court may allow. Sec. 2. Be it further enacted, That the commissioner appointed as aforesald, upon filing the bond required of him, shall forthwith become, and so long as he shall contine such commissioner and no longer, shall be vested with all the estate, ef-fects and rights of action which such Bank possessed, had or held of was vested with, at the time of filing such bill, and which such Bank could at that time have lawfully sold, assigned or transferred, including all debts due to such Bank or to any person for its use and all liens and securities therefor. The court may require such Bank by its Cashier or other proper officer to endorse without recourse, all such bills or notes, draw all such checks or orders for money and execute such other paper writings as the court shall deem ne cessary or useful to enable the commissioner to demand or recover and receive the estate and e'fects of such Bank for the benefit of its creditors, The commissioner shall have the like remedy to cover and receive all the estate, debts and effects elonging to such Bank at the time of filing its oil, as such Bank might have had if no proceedings had been had under this act; and should any such Bank have made any sale or transfer of its roperty or effects, fraudulent as to its creditors out valid as between the parties, in such cases uch commissioner shall stand in the place of the creditors, and may recover and receive such pro-perty or effects so translettly sold or transferred, pertyor effects so transducently sold or transferred, aithough such Bank could not have done so. In all sums prosecuted by such Commissioner at law or in Equity the plaintiff shall be styled "The Commissioner," (adding thereto the name of the particular Bank for which he has been appointed the Commissioner,) and if at the time of filing such bill by any Bank any action at law or proceeding or suit in Equity shall be pending in the name of such Bank for the recovery of any estate debt or demand which might or ought to be vested in such Commissioner as aloresaid, such Commissioner shall be admitted to prosecute the same in m of piratical copyists, like manner and to like effect; and no suit pend ing at any time for the recovery of any estate, debt or demand in the name of such Commissioner shall be abated by the death or removal of such Commissioner, but a Commissioner to be appointed in such cases (as is hereinafter provided) shall be admitted to prosecute the same in like manner and to like effect as if the same had been originally commenced by him. Sec. 3. Be it further enacted, That the Commis sioner aforesaid small in all things connected with the discharge of his duties as Commissioner, act under the direction and orders of the court; and if any such Commissioner shalt refuse or unreasonably delay or neglect to obey any rule, order or decree of the court, it shall be the duty of the court to remove such Commissioner; and upon which is offered at the lowest cash prices. They respectfully solicit orders from the Merchants of North-Carolina.

PULLIAM, JONES & CO.

PULLIAM, JONES & CO. ner and for the like uses and purposes as provided in cases of the Commissioner first appointed; and thereupon all the estate, property, effects debts and rights of action vested in such Bank after the time of filing its bill, not before lawfully disposed of by any former Commissioner, shall be forthwith vested in such new commissioner as legally and effectually as if he had been the commissioner first appointed; and the court shall have the power to require any former commissioner or the representative of any deceased commissioner, to surrender to such new commissioner any such estate, effects, money or evidence of debt which of right should be in the hands or possession of such new commissioner. Sec. 4. Be it further enacted, That all demands of creditors may be preferred and proved before such commissioner, and for all purposes connected with the investigation of the demands of any person claiming to be a creditor as aforesaid, the commissioner snall have power to administer all oaths required in the course of such proceedings Any supposed creditor whose claims shall be wholly or in part disallowed by any commission er, may appeal to the Court, where the same shall be determined according to the course of the Court, or decided at law, as the court may direct and in all such appeals the case shall be docketed in the name of the creditor against "The Com missioner of --- " (adding the name of the Bank of which he is commissioner,) and shall be tried and determined as like suits between other parties In all cases in which any such commissioner shall be a party, whether plaintiff or defendant, and it shall appear that there has been mutual credit given by the Bank, and any other corporation or any person who is the opposite party, or there are mutual debts between them, whether such debts be due and payable or not, the account between the parties shall be stated, and one debt shall be set off against the other, and the balance of such account only shall be allowed or paid on eitheir side respectively; and the costs in all cases shall be paid by either party as the court shall direct. The commissioner shall from time to time preare statements in writing of all claims allowed y him; showing the character of such claims and the evidence on which their validity is based; and there shall be no application of any funds in the hands of such commissioner to the satisfaction in whole or in part of any claim whatever, except under a rule or order of the court there-
